Further information regarding your itinerary:

This escorted tour of Australia manages to pack in the most popular highlights of this large country into a neat holiday package. You will have the chance to visit the attractions of Sydney, Melbourne, Cairns, Alice Springs and Uluru. There is plenty of time to explore the buzz of cosmopolitan Melbourne. Your half-day tour will get you acquainted with the city's past: Captain Cook's cottage, Fitzroy Gardens and the Old Melbourne Gaol that once imprisoned outlaw Ned Kelly.

The Great Ocean Road is a fantastic drive for those wanting to venture beyond the city. Sydney, home of Australia's most iconic urban sights - Sydney Harbour Bridge and the Opera House - makes an interesting comparison as to which one will be your favourite. Australia's most iconic natural highlights feature and none more impressively than Uluru (Ayers Rock), which has a deep cultural significance for the Aboriginal people. You'll witness the dramatic colour changes at sunrise and sunset. From your Cairns base you will visit the Great Barrier Reef.

We have planned an excursion on a catamaran and the opportunity to learn about reef life from the onboard marine naturalist. You can snorkel and see the dazzling reef close up in all its dazzling colours. There will be tour options at Cairns to enjoy the scenic railway journey up to Kuranda and the Skyrail Rainforest Cableway or visit World Heritage Cape Tribulation and Daintree Forest. Your Australia escorted tour has taken you half way around the world, so if you want to make your trip last a little longer there is the option to extend your holiday in Perth. If you pre-book our 2-night return stopover you will have a relaxing stay in Dubai.

Itinerary

Day 1 Depart London Heathrow

You'll fly overnight, bound for Dubai.

Day 2 Dubai to Melbourne

When you land in Dubai, you'll transfer to the flight to Melbourne, unless you've pre-booked our 2-day stopover in Dubai to break your journey.
