The three-star Phonecian Hotel has been in operation since 1917. It is situated in the very centre of the Old Royal City of Krakow - the cultural capital of Poland. From here all major points of interests can be easily reached on foot. From the windows of the Hotel you can admire a beautiful view of old square with the Slowacki Theatre and the remains of the city's defensive walls. There is the medieval Florian's Gate and the Barbican nearby where Polish kings began their route to the Wawel Castle.
